THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 20.

GEN. CASS—EXTRA PAY.—Not content with his liberal salary, not satisfied with double pay, this servant of the "dear people," this Locomotive Presidential candidate, trumps up extra charges—presents for extra allowances after year, and finally during the reign of favoritism, abasquation and defalcation, under Jackson and Van Buren, General Cass obtains the allowance of his extra bills, which previous Administrations had refused.

During this period of twenty-nine years, he drew from the public Treasury two hundred and twenty-nine thousand six hundred and sixty-two dollars, being nearly eight thousand dollars per year, and over twenty dollars per day, Sundays "not excepted." And about seventy-five thousand dollars of this, is extra allowance of extra charges, made by his political associates, years after the pretended services were rendered for which the extra pay was demanded.

The records also show that Gen. Taylor, during forty years of hard, perilous, and constant services, has never received one cent extra. THERE IS THERE ONE CENT EXTRA CHARGED IN THE ACCOUNTS OF ZACHARY CASS.

No honest man can hesitate which of the two to choose.

GEN. KEARNEY REJECTED.—Brig. Gen. Kearney, nominated as major-general by brevet, was rejected by the Senate on Saturday. This is the gallant officer who achieved the conquest of Mexico and California, and the only general officer who encountered the foe in personal combat, in which he was severely wounded with a lance. The dispute with Col. Fremont is doubtless the cause of his rejection.

GEN. TAYLOR AND THE WHIG PRESS OF NEW JERSEY.—The Rahway Advocate, an earnest advocate for the nomination of Mr. Clay, raises the Whig banner inscribed with the names of Taylor and Fillmore. The Jersey Whig press is now unanimous.

THE first number of the Daily Democrat made its appearance in our city on yesterday, and after Monday next it to be issued regularly. It is respectable in size and very neat in appearance, being printed on new and handsome type. This is the third daily paper that has been started here in the last year—first the Commercial, next, then the Journal Whig, and now the Democrat, Locomotive enough to please the most ultra of that party. Evansville is certainly going ahead and will be a place some of these days. And just here we may as well remark that the most certain way to build up a city is to commence by building up the Press. If the Press is suffered to languish heavily along year after year, it is more than likely that the city won't be built up very soon—the merchants will want customers, the mechanics employers, and the houses tenants. But give to your newspapers a liberal support and you do the thing in a hurry.

TAYLOR AND THE VOLUNTEERS.—Every returned volunteer gives a vote for "old Zack," and the Locomotive cannot help it. Their enthusiasm cannot be restrained. The N. O. Bulletin states that on a recent occasion Gen. Taylor went to the counting house of his factors, on Gravier street, and some volunteers who were passing, having got an inkling he was there, kept keeping about the building until their numbers increased to upwards of one hundred, and finally they caught a glimpse of him through one of the open windows of the office which was on the upper floor, "there he is!" "there's the old man!" shouted out fifty voices at once, and taking time to give but one tremendous cheer, they all made a rush for the door, and went clattering and shouting up stairs like a parcel of wild Indians, surrounding him in an instant, and crowding up the whole spare space between the desks, counters and cotton sample tables, every one pushing forward to get a grip of his hand, and almost shook the arm from off his shoulder. After each and every one of them had obtained a look and a word, they came tumbling out of the house, with their mouths extended from ear to ear, and giving one more loud and hearty cheer, each wended on his way, in the best possible good humor. Are such men—fresh from the fields of victory—going to vote for Cass, the "hero of Hull's surrender"?—Never! Never!

SENATORIAL ARGUMENTS.—If ever Locomotive was "cornered," it is at this present writing. The Pennsylvania considers the arguments of Senators Mangum and Reverdy Johnson in reference to the two lives of Cass, one for Southern and the other for Northern distribution, as a "tempest in a tea-pot." For utter lack of argument it resorts to the use of such words as "absurd, contemptible, reckless," &c. It is the old game. Mr. Duncan of Ohio was caught and exposed four years since in the same trick. In one of his published speeches in Congress he "dissected a coon." And now at this time to wit June 30, 1848, comes the sad complaint by John J. Chandler, late senator and files in the office of the Clerk of the Senate, that he had been "dissected" by the Democrats. And it is satisfactory appearing from the affidavit of a disinterested person that said John J. Chandler is not at this time a resident of the State of Indiana. Therefore notice is hereby given to the said Ferdinand Hays, that unless he be, and appear here on or before the calling of this cause at the next term of court to be held at the Court House in Evansville on the fourth Monday in September next and answer said Petition for divorce, the same will be heard and determined in his absence.

LETTER FROM GEN. TAYLOR.—The following is the first letter we have seen from Gen. Taylor since his nomination by the Philadelphia convention. It was written in acknowledgment of a ratification meeting, held at Raleigh, North Carolina:

BAYON ROUGE, LA., June 24, 1848.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the resolutions adopted, on the 9th inst., by a meeting of my fellow-citizens of Raleigh ratifying my nomination for the Presidency by the National Whig Convention.

I beg that you will convey to my fellow-citizens of Raleigh my grateful acknowledgments for this distinguished mark of their confidence, and assure them that I shall feel proud of the support of men who are governed by such a spirit of moderation in their political opinions as that manifested in the resolutions before me.

For yourself, sir, be pleased to accept the assurance of my high esteem and kindest wishes.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

ZACHARY CASS.

Hon. J. BREDELL, Raleigh, N. C.

FOUR FACES.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Express, under date of 8th inst., writes:

I have seen no less than five faces of Cass intended for different meridians. There were two editions issued in March last, and two in June—the two in March were, in character, unlike those of June, and the two in June like those of March, obviously designed for a Southern and Northern market. All attempts at explanation only make the matter worse.—Here are the books and here are the alterations—free trade opinions are inserted in one edition, and omitted in the other—the letter to Nicholas, against the "Wilmot Proviso," inserted in one, and opinions upon the French revolution taking its place in the other. Instead of being Janus faced, therefore, General Cass has four faces, one for each of the different points of the compass. He looks North and West in favor of internal improvements.—Southward, he endorses Mr. Polk's notes against them, and approves of all that he has done. He has two faces upon the Wilmot Proviso, two upon the tariff, two upon the French King and the Revolution, and his friends have shown him up in so many ways, that he has more lives than a cat. The last I have seen is in German, and this is expressly intended by its omissions and additions to mislead and deceive that large portion of our adopted citizens, who dwell among us. These little tricks of little politicians, can hardly have any other effect, now that they are exposed, than to recoil upon those who make use of them for party success. E. B.

A TRUE DEMOCRAT.—Geo. Seitzinger, Esq., an old Democrat of Barry township, Schuylkill county, Pa. sent the following to the Pottsville Celebration of the 4th July:

"My first President was Thomas Jefferson, and my last James K. Polk. I was in favor of the tariff of 1812, when Polk cancelled the tariff of 1816, and Dallas gave his casting vote in favor of it. I then recommended Scott or Taylor for the next Presidency, and as soon as the Mexicans I read my neighbors that Scott must give way to Taylor this time, and I feel confident, if we live, to see Gen. Taylor in the Presidential chair on the 4th of March next.—I have supported Jefferson and all the Democratic Presidents from his time down and I consider Gen. Taylor a democrat of the old Jeffersonian school."
